Everyone Suddenly Burst Out Singing

William Bradley Roberts (b. 1947)

Everyone suddenly burst out singing;
And I was filled with such delight
As prisoned birds must find in freedom,
Winging wildly across the white
Orchards and dark-green fields;
on - on - and out of sight.

Everyone's voice was suddenly lifted;
And beauty came like the setting sun:
My heart was shaken with tears; and horror
Drifted away ... O, but Everyone
Was a bird; and the song was wordless;
the singing will never be done.

This song was adapted from the poem "Everyone Sang," by Siegfried Sassoon, 1919. Thank you to the William & Mary Choir and director Mark Helms for practicing and performing this new piece.

Our Alma Mater

Hark! the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear.
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

Chorus

William & Mary loved of old
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus
Alma Mater - Hail!

God, our Father, hear our voices
Listen to our cry;
Bless the college of our fathers,
let her never die.

Chorus

& MARY
